

Boys School Youth Summer Camp 2009

The City of 10,000 Buddhas

June 22-July 5
for boys ages 5-14

THEME

Instilling Fundamental Virtues - Reflecting on the Past & Looking to the Future

PURPOSE

We will learn about the history of CTTB, its establishment, traditions and mission. We will study the life of the founder of CTTB, the Venerable Master Hsuan Hua as well as the Buddhist lifestyle, and Eastern and Western values. The participants will also work together in the preparation and celebration of City of 10,000 Buddhas' (CTTB) 30th anniversary.

HOURS

7:50 AM~3:00 PM (for day students)

CAMP ACTIVITIES

- Experience Buddhist chanting, teachings, meditation, and vegetarian meals
- Study Chinese language and calligraphy
- Organic farming
- Creative arts and crafts
- Explore and hear about CTTB's history and stories
- Participate in oriental cultural activities, music, and performances
- Sports, outdoor activities, and community service
- Nature hikes and fieldtrips
- Extra curricular activities: Lion Dance, Dragon Dance, and Taiko, etc...

FEES

Day Student: $200.00 (includes tuition, vegetarian lunch, T-shirts, and $20.00 nonrefundable fee)

Boarding Student (12-year-old and older): $500.00 ($230 tuition, vegetarian lunch & snack, T-shirts, $250 room & board, and $20.00 nonrefundable fee)

(Boarding students from afar should arrive Sunday afternoon, June 21 and leave Sunday afternoon, July 5. Anyone staying in the monastery must provide proof of health insurance. International students must purchase health/travel insurance, which is available through school.)

Room & Board for parents with children: $250/adult, $150/child under 12

APPLICATION DEADLINE

June 1 or until spaces are filled

30 dormitory spaces only

CONTACT INFORMATION

IGDV Boys School

Tel & Fax: 707-468-1138

Email: boyssummercamp@gmail.com

Parents and adults are welcome to volunteer as camp instructors, counselors, and helpers.
For more information please visit: www.igdvs.org or contact us for application.

Instilling Goodness Elementary & Developing Virtue Secondary Boys School
P.O. Box 398, Talmage, CA 95481